

Bomb and Explosives Response Training

Homeland
Security

Incident Response To Terrorist Bombings

AWR - 130

This Course Includes Information on:

Identification of Bomb Components

Response Safety for Bomb or Suspected Bomb calls.

Blast and Detonation Effects of: pipe bombs, letter bombs, package, bombs, vehicle bombs, improvised explosives

Response to Explosions After Detonation.

Terrorism Awareness

Military and Civilian Explosives

Improvised Explosive Devices

Secondary Device Awareness.

This course is provided by the Energetic Materials Testing and Research Center of New Mexico Tech through the U. S. Department of Homeland Security.

Who Should Attend-

This program has relevant safety and survival information for Firefighters, EMS, Police, first responders, school personnel, and government officials. Course content contains numerous videos and photos of different types of explosive devices detonating, bomb components, hazard awareness, responder safety and response guidelines.

This course credits the participant with 4 hours of instruction in response to Weapons of Mass Destruction.

Note: Course attendees must be a U.S. citizen. There is no charge for this course. This is a one night, 4 hour class.

Date: Wednesday October 19, 2016 Time: 18:30 hours - 22:30 hours

Woodstock Fire Department – Company 1

242 Tinker Street (Intersection of State Route 212 and Speare Road)

Woodstock, NY 12498

For further information contact Robert Bloom at: rbloom@woodstockfiredept.org

Pre- Registration is requested. To pre-register go to:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/incident-response-to-terrorist-bombings-course-tickets-28218495279>