Parete, Provenzano, Rodriguez, Shapiro, Stoeckeler, Zimet, Aiello, Alfonso, Busick, Cummings, DePew, Every, Felicello, Gerentine, Harris, Hathaway, Maloney, McAfee, Meyer, Noonan, Roberti, Stock and Tipp offer the following:

WHEREAS, one of the primary functions of a Legislator is to pass resolutions, and

WHEREAS, providing Legislators with the tools to better research proposed resolutions will improve the process, and

WHEREAS, allowing Legislators as much time as possible to research issues involved in such proposed resolutions will improve the resolution process as well, and

WHEREAS, such a link would allow the public greater access to the working of the Ulster County Legislature, and allow them to voice support or opposition for proposed resolutions, and

WHEREAS, the County has the technology to provide this assistance.

RESOLVED, that the Clerk of the Legislature be directed to establish and maintain a County Resolution Link (CRL) and that all resolutions be entered on this link as soon as possible after they are presented by Legislative Committees and Legislators, and moves its adoption.
