ULSTER COUNTY LEGISLATOR ROBERT AIELLO RECOGNIZES MARILYN RICHARDSON FOR 20 YEARS OF DEDICATED SERVICE TO SAUGERTIES FOOD PANTRY

(Saugerties, NY) – Ulster County Legislator Robert Aiello presented the Pride of Ulster County to Marilyn Richardson at the March Dinner of the Saugerties Council of Churches for her dedication and devotion of twenty years as the Coordinator of the Saugerties Food Pantry.

“Food insecurity is a harsh reality for so many families and the increased demand over her tenure has only been met through her excellent ability to access grants and communicate the needs to the greater community” noted Legislator Aiello.

Ms. Richardson has been the single most important asset to the Saugerties Food Pantry which was exemplified when she recently contemplated stepping down from her role and it was quickly understood by the Saugerties community that it would take multiple people to fill her shoes.

The Ulster County Legislature joins Legislator Aiello in the recognition of this amazing woman and in wishing her all the best in the next twenty years.
