

American Red Cross
New York State

Do you know what to do when Disaster Strikes?

The American Red Cross in partnership with New York State and the Institute for Disaster Mental Health (IDMH) at SUNY New Paltz is hosting a free disaster preparedness session.

Join us for a Q & A session with:

Ulster County Emergency Management, Steve Peterson
Town of New Paltz Emergency Planning Chair, Carol Connolley
SUNY New Paltz Chief of Police, David Dugatkin
The Red Cross Disaster Preparedness Team

Wednesday, November 18th

6:00-7:30 pm

SUNY New Paltz Campus

Coykendall Science Building Auditorium

Please call (845) 257-7869 with any questions.

Governor Cuomo's Citizen Preparedness Corps training lasts approximately an hour and gives a comprehensive overview on how to prepare for, respond to, and recover from any natural, man-made, and technological disasters that may occur. Participants who attend the in-person training can receive either a safety whistle or a first aid kit for free!

Can't Make it? Take the free 15 minute online training!

For more information or to schedule a FREE in-person Preparedness training please call or email:

(516)637-2015

preparedness.neny@redcross.org

Each in-person participant receives a free flashlight and free first aid kit!

You can also submit an online request form by going to:

www.redcross.org/cpc-ny

TRAINING AS EASY AS 1-2-3!

American Red Cross

1. Visit <http://prepare.ny.gov> to access online training.
2. Use an existing NY.GOV ID or create a new ID to log in.
3. When asked "Where did you learn about the online Citizen Preparedness Training?" be sure to select "Referral from the American Red Cross."

