ANNOUNCEMENTS

JULY SESSION THEME: Recreation and Parks Awareness Month

Parks and public spaces are critical in the role of preserving natural resources and have real economic benefits for communities. These open spaces are a place for us to connect to nature, relax and recharge. From the Ulster County Pool to Belleayre, from the Walkway over the Hudson to Minnewaska, there are dozens of trails, boat launches, parks, picnic areas and playgrounds.

This July, we invite you to discover the wonders of nature at your local parks!

PRIVILEGE OF THE FLOOR:

Chairman Kenneth Ronk granted Privilege of the Floor to Town of New Paltz Historian Susan Stessin-Cohn and artist Trina Greene, members of the Poorhouse Memorial Committee who shared information regarding the collaboration and creation of a Poorhouse Memorial to be located at the Ulster County Fairgrounds and Pool in New Paltz.

Between 1828 and 1976 this site was the location of the Ulster County Poorhouse. It was home to thousands of people that could not support themselves without community assistance and many others without means were buried at the site. Along with Ms. Stessin-Cohn and Ms. Greene, supporters of the project include County Executive Michael Hein, County Clerk Nina Postupack, County Legislature Chairman Kenneth Ronk, Assemblyman Kevin Cahill, County Historian Geoffrey Miller, and members of the Poorhouse Memorial Committee.

PRESENTATIONS:

Chairman Kenneth Ronk called upon District No.7 Legislator Jennifer Schwartz Berky to introduce the partnership of SageArts, an intergenerational arts project that encourages social inclusion and dignity for elders in the Hudson Valley along with the Rondout Valley Growers Association (RVGA), a grass roots organization of farmers and neighbors committed to celebrating, educating and advocating the importance of local farming. Tonight's guests were Colette Ruoff, Mark Brown, Deborah Meyer DeWan, Jack Schoonmaker and Maria Reidelbach. Mark Brown performed an original song about the elder's life.

Chairman Kenneth Ronk called upon Legislator Mary Wawro, Chairman of Legislative Programs, Education and Community Services Committee, Deputy Chairman Legislator David Donaldson, and Legislator Jennifer Schwartz Berky to present a Pride of Ulster County Awards to SageArts and Rondout Valley Growers Association.

PUBLIC COMMENT:

There were (13) speakers signed up for public comment.

1. Bill Ford, Kingston: Mr. Ford spoke urging that the U.S. Coast Guard hearings be open to the public at large in locations affected by their decisions rather than in NYC or Washington DC. Mr. Ford provided his written letter to Admiral Zukumft of the Coast Guard for the record.
2. Gina Funk: Ms. Funk spoke about our child protected services legal system and her lack of rights as a parent.
3. Alana Ore: Ms. Ore also spoke about the child protected services legal system and her personal experience, noting system oversight is needed.
4. Russ Bonk: Mr. Bonk along with members of the U & D Railway Revitalization Corp., Lei Isaacs, Father John Nelson, Jeffrey Mizell and Kelly Myers, discovered rails have been removed from the U & D Corridor in Shandaken. Mr. Bonk asked who was responsible for "torching" the rails, noting this is a travesty as there is no way they can be reused. He reported the rails are currently at Millens Steel yard and wanted to know who is responsible for the removal, and who is profiting. Mr. Bonk expressed sadness noting the public should have been made aware as their mission statement is to preserve these rails.

5. Lei Isaacs, Kingston: Ms. Isaacs also spoke in support of preserving the Catskill Mountain Railroad and noted the unfinished greenway in her neighborhood behind Walgreens in Kingston. Ms. Isaac noted the trail doesn't look anything like the promotional photos of mothers strolling with their baby carriages. Ms. Isaacs provided photos for the legislature to view.
6. Father John Nelson, Woodstock: Mr. Nelson also spoke in support of preserving the Catskill Mountain Railroad. U & D Railway Revitalization Corp. is in the process of designing plans for a new railway system and full service train station, and is looking for partners to integrate their ideas to help bring revenue to the county. Also on another note, they will sponsor the "Hiroshima Mayors for Peace" program in Woodstock, on August 6, 2016.
7. Jeffrey Mizell, Coxsackie: Mr. Mizell envisions Kingston having similar commuter rail systems as in Dutchess County. Mr. Mizell is asking for legislative representation – bring them to the table as a serious partner.
8. Joseph Wolff, Boiceville: Mr. Wolff also spoke to preservation of the rails and asked that other trail projects be completed before starting other locations.
9. Frank Nazzaro, Kingston: Mr. Nazzaro teaches farming at the Center for Creative Education in Kingston. Mr. Nazzaro noted the lack of clean water in the world and the federal deficit we are facing. Taxpayer borrowed money is being squandered on trails instead of trying to address and reduce our national debt.
10. Kelly Myers, Saugerties: Ms. Myers also spoke in favor of the Catskill Mountain Railroad but however dismayed with the rail being segmented.
11. Mike Wendel, Wawarsing: Mr. Wendel spoke to the Wawarsing disaster relief funding. Also Mr. Wendel is focused on helping children with brain cancer and leukemia. Mr. Wendel also noted he has no association with the railroad people, however admires the work they've put forth.
12. Philip Guerri, Kingston: Mr. Guerri expressed life isn't fair and everyone should get accustomed to it. Mr. Guerri in that vein also mentioned forth right corporatism, Belleayre, green commitment and capitalism.
13. Kathy Nolan, Shankaken: Ms. Nolan expressed her appreciation to the legislature for including in the budget the funds from the permits that have been signed with the Catskill Mtn. Railroad, noting her support for the railroad. Ms. Nolan expressed rails that were removed in Shandaken on Rt. 28 was announced months ago – DOT eminent domain. The NYC DEP created a bike path to loop with the new reservoir trail on the north side of the Ashokan Reservoir. Kingston Point trolley has a foot path which is not wheelchair accessible.
