Ulster County Legislature's Minority Leader David B. Donaldson Selects Dare Thompson to be Considered Among the Pool of Candidates for Independent Member of the Golden Hill LDC Board of Directors

On March 9, 2012, Minority Leader of the Ulster County Legislature, David Donaldson, selected Dare Thompson to be considered among the pool of candidates from which the independent member of the Golden Hill Local Development Corporation Board of Directors shall be chosen. The independent member will be chosen by the present six members that have been chosen to serve thus far.

Ms. Thompson received her Masters Degree from Oberlin College and currently serves as the President of the League of Women Voters. Ms. Thompson has previously served as the Executive Director of several not-for-profit organizations, including, The Kirkland Art Center in Clinton, New York, The Ohio Citizens for the Arts in Columbus, Ohio, and The Hudson Valley Writer's Center in Sleepy Hollow, New York.

"I am excited that Dare Thompson agreed to give her time if chosen by the six Golden Hill LDC Board of Directors. She would make an excellent choice to serve as the independent member of this body," said Minority Leader David Donaldson.
