Planning Seminar Series

The Ulster County Planning Board is sponsoring two free seminars on Thursday October 23rd and on Thursday, November 13th, from 7:00 to 9:30 PM in the Student Lounge at SUNY Ulster. Please join us for a lively and informative discussion.

If you have any specific questions on the seminar topics that you wish to see addressed you can email us at planning@co.ulster.ny.us or drop us a line at the address below.

The Transportation & Land Use Connection – October 23rd

This seminar involves two presentations. Part One covers the tools used to assess traffic impacts and methods beyond traffic impact studies used to achieve a balanced multi-modal transportation system, including examples from planning studies and generic environmental impact statements. Part Two discusses the relationship between development, traffic, and the overall quality of life in a community and provides practical examples of communities that have used their planning and regulatory authority to develop a transportation system that serves the communities' broader objectives.

Presenters

Mark Sargent P.E., Associate, Creighton Manning Engineering, LLP

Steve Munson, Associate Transportation Analyst, NYS Dept. of Transportation

SEQRA: Guiding the Process – November 13th

DEC SEQR and permitting staff will present a basic overview of SEQRA's foundations and decision-making requirements, focusing primarily on the application of SEQR to state and local permitting and approvals. The program allows time for and encourages question from attendees.
