

Waste Management: Addressing Today's Challenges

Saturday November 10, 2018 8:30 am to 1 pm
SUNY Ulster at Stone Ridge: Lounge

Organized by the Ulster County Environmental Council &
League of Women Voters of the Mid-Hudson Region

Objective: Bring together stakeholders to educate, inform and stimulate discussion on significant challenges around waste management that Ulster County is facing now and in the near future.

Who should attend? Municipal officials, members of CAC and EMCs, recycling and solid waste professionals, activists and members of non-profits and people interested in these issues and challenges.

AGENDA

- 8:30 Registration and Refreshments
- 8:45 Introduction - Dave Haldeman, EMC
- 9:00 Biggest Challenges for Ulster County Resource Recovery Agency
Tim Rose – Executive Director UCRRA
- 9:20 Ulster County Initiatives-
Amanda LaValle, UC Department of the Environment
Manna Jo Greene, UC Legislator
- 9:40 Zero Waste –
Laura Petit UC Legislator and Recycling Coordinator, Town of New Paltz
- 10:00 Panel Discussion and Q and A.
- 10:30 Break - Food available by donation
- 10:45 Repair Café –
John Wackman Repair Café Hudson Valley
- 10: 50 Recycling
Terry Laibach - Chief of the Recycling Outreach Section of DEC's Bureau of Waste Reduction
- 11:10 Food Waste Prevention and Diversion
Gary Feinland – Environmental Program Specialist, DEC Bureau of Waste Reduction and Recycling
- 11:30 Promising Prospects of Paint Stewardship Legislation in New York State
Kevin Cleary, New York Lobbyist, for PaintCare
- 11:50 Panel Discussion and Q and A.
- 12:20 Wrap- up, Evaluation
- 12:30 Network and Adjourn