CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Defined by the ceaseless tides of the Hudson River and the majestic rise of the Catskill Mountains, Ulster County enjoys a rich culture fueled by our diversity, past and present.

We count among our ancestors great abolitionists like Sojourner Truth, who gained her son's freedom from slavery in the Ulster County Courthouse still used today to mete out justice; freedom fighters like George Clinton, who fought against British oppression in the Revolutionary War and went on to become New York's first governor; world-class artists like John Vanderlyn and Jervis McEntee, the latter of whom was part of the nation's first unique style of fine art, the Hudson River School of painting; and writers like John Burroughs, whose essays on nature immortalized the Hudson River Valley for future generations.

While firmly grounded by its historic roots, Ulster County has not been bound by them, but has grown from its noble beginnings to become a thriving and diverse community.

Our artistic beginnings have grown into a vibrant arts community with more artists per capita than any other New York county north of New York City. Our early quests for freedom from oppression continue today as we strive for equality while trying to improve the lives of our most needy citizens. And our roots in the natural world have made Ulster County a world-class destination for outdoor adventurers.

The diversity of Ulster County lies not only in its people, but in the land itself. With the historic Hudson River on its eastern boundary, and the Catskill Mountains to the west, Ulster County offers a breadth of experiences unmatched in the state. Where else can you sit by the Hudson River and watch the boats go by in the morning, and then spend the afternoon engaged in world-class rock climbing? Breathtaking down-hill skiing, top-flight golf courses, hang-gliding, skydiving, kayaking and hundreds of miles of walking, bicycling and hiking trails await the adventurous right here in Ulster County.

A wealth of historic sites, art galleries, attractions, live music and dance, fine dining, family farms, and of course, our many fairs and festivals complete the scene, a testament to Ulster County's diversity and our continued growth as a community.

Whether you are visiting or you're a life long resident, take the time to enjoy what Ulster County has to offer. A new adventure awaits you every day.

Enjoy and have a healthy, happy year.

David B. Donaldson, Chairman
Ulster County Legislature

Alternative Sentencing is a program through which offenders are diverted to perform community service as the result of a non-violent criminal conviction. The objectives of the program are to reduce reliance on unnecessary incarceration in a manner consistent with public safety; provide a means of punishment to an offender and a means of restitution to the community; increase sentencing options to all criminal courts in Ulster County; foster the development of employment, vocational, and life skills as a way of improving situations which might otherwise contribute to criminal activity; encourage and implement integration between offender and community in the process of reducing dysfunction; and to forward the cause of alternative sanctions. The agency administers and promotes quality legal services for indigent individuals through the County's Assigned Counsel Plan, in accordance with Article 18b of County Law.

Programs offered include:

- Individual Community Service: An individual is placed at a not-for-profit job site and reports there the same way an employee would. Placement depends on skills and abilities of the individual, and the needs of the job site. The site assigns tasks and records time sheets. Monitoring is maintained by this office to insure compliance and completion of time ordered.
- Work Crews: Community service is performed as a group, led and supervised by an employee of this department. Projects change on an almost daily basis, depending on the job site or project. Most projects are general labor, such as interior and exterior painting, grounds and building maintenance, cleaning, etc. The crew operates seven days a week from 8:00AM to 2:00PM with the exception of major holidays. All projects are within County limits.
- Kingston City Work Crew: A work crew dedicated to projects within the City of Kingston operates on Saturdays only.

For Case Processing: Referrals are taken from any source: Courts, attorneys, family, agencies, individuals. Violations, misdemeanors, and felonies are eligible. Cases are screened for eligibility and public safety. Recommendation is made to the sentencing court, for both acceptance and denial. Once a case is sentenced, placement and monitoring are maintained through completion or termination. A final report is made to the sentencing court.

To Become a Job Site: Any not-for-profit, municipal, State or charitable organization is eligible to become a job site. There are currently over 200 job sites throughout Ulster County.

The Ulster County Development Corporation, a private not-for-profit organization, is the lead economic development agency for the County with a mission of creating and maintaining jobs through the attraction of new business or the retention and expansion of existing business. In order to accomplish this objective, UCDC offers and administers financial programs and loan funds, assists with site selection, and provides overall guidance and assistance with general and specific business problems, issues and opportunities.

Within the UCDC exists the Ulster County Industrial Development Agency.

- The Ulster County Industrial Development Agency (UCIDA) is authorized to issue taxable and tax-exempt industrial development revenue bonds for qualified projects. The financing for qualified projects is provided with the proceeds of the sale

District Attorney and Assistants are on call 24 hours to aid law enforcement

It is the constitutional duty of the District Attorney to conduct all prosecutions for crimes and offenses cognizable by the courts of the county for which they have been elected or appointed.

The District Attorney is the County's Chief Law Enforcement Officer. As such, the roles and duties of the District Attorney and his Assistants are varied:

- Prosecutor
- Victims Advocate
- Advisor to Police Agencies
- Coordinator of Criminal Justice Agencies
- Educator
- Aide in Improving Criminal Justice Legislation

The mission of the District Attorney's Office is to secure just sanctions for those who choose to violate our laws, to protect innocent victims of crime, and strive to develop policies and initiatives aimed at improving the quality of life in our community.

District Attorneys and their Assistants bear certain ethical responsibilities: Among these they must deal with other attorneys in an aggressive and forceful manner, yet conduct themselves professionally, honestly and avoid an appearance of impropriety. They must demonstrate complete respect for the court, but not fawn over the judiciary. They must be cooperative, but not subservient.

Programs and Services

- Sexual Assault Nurse Examiners Unit

Phone: (845) 340-3363

S.A.N.E. is a program specifically designed to insure that victims of sexual assaults are treated in a compassionate and humane manner. It is staffed by specially trained nurse professionals who have been schooled in the most advanced evidence collection techniques and who are sensitive to the physical and psychological needs of the victims of these types of crimes.

Under this program, victims of sexual assault are promptly taken by police agencies to a specially designed area at the Benedictine Hospital. The victim is met by the S.A.N.E. examiners and by a volunteer of the local Crime Victims Assistance Program. After being counseled as to what will transpire and given a full description of their rights, the victims are then examined by a specially trained nurse. The area where the examination is to be conducted is equipped with a waiting room for police and family members. After the examination has been completed, the victim can shower, change into fresh clothing, and receive follow-up information for counseling and medical treatment. Once the examination has been completed, the police agency will transport the victim and her family back to her residence.

At all times, prior to, during and after the exam, the victim is in contact with a member of the Crime Victims Assistance Program. She is kept informed concerning the progress of the investigation, and if an arrest is made, will be fully consulted prior to the disposition of any charges that might be filed.

The rulings that apply include Civil Practice Law and Rules, Judiciary Law, Real Property Actions and Proceedings Law (RPAPL), and the Family Court Act (FCA).

Phone: (845) 334-5045

Hours: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday-Friday

Applications accepted: 8:00 AM to 11:00 AM Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.
Emergencies are handled on a daily basis.

Temporary Assistance (TA) is the term now used in NYS for Public Assistance (welfare) programs. The term conveys the message that assistance is short-term help for families and individuals while they work their way toward self-sufficiency. Program has an employment focus.

TA clients receive money for basic living expenses, food stamps and medical coverage. Eligibility is based on the income and resources of the family. Family Assistance provides money to families with children and Safety Net Assistance provides money for basic living expenses for single adults and childless couples.

Emergency Assistance for Adults (EAA) is a short-term program to meet the emergency needs of Supplemental Security Income (SSI) recipients.

Emergency Assistance for Families (EAF) is a short-term program to meet the emergency needs of families.

Home Energy Assistance Program (HEAP) is a Federally funded program that helps low income households pay home energy costs and funds programs for low cost residential weatherization and other energy related home repairs. HEAP is available to low income, TA and SSI households during the heating season (mid-November through April).

Transitional Opportunities Program (TOP) is a component of Ulster County's Family Assistance Program. The goal of TOP is to assist all eligible parents in overcoming the barriers to financial self-sufficiency. Top fosters the importance of wages from employment, job advancement and retention, as well as child support (when applicable) in achieving independence and economic self-sufficiency. TOP provides comprehensive supportive services, including intensive case management services, employment services, child support services, day care, and family services.

Food Stamps enable eligible households to purchase food at participating stores. The program is designed to be a supplement to a household food budget in order to provide a nutritious diet.

A new electronic system for issuing Food Stamps began in December 2000 called Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT). Benefits are authorized in an account that is accessed by the recipient at participating retail stores through the use of a benefit card and personal identification number (PIN).

The Food Stamps Division serves all households that do not receive Temporary Assistance. Eligibility is based on resources and monthly income. Food Stamp levels are generally higher than TA levels. This allows participation by working families.

Medical Assistance is the term used in NYS for Medicaid Programs, which are a far more extensive set of programs than they were prior to Welfare Reform.

Our traditional, very comprehensive, programs are fee-for-service Medicaid, and Managed Care Medicaid. Both these programs are for individuals and families age 19 and up who meet very stringent income and resource guidelines. We also offer Child Health Plus A for children under 19 who meet our income guidelines. Children above those income levels would be referred to Child Health Plus B which is not operated under Medical Assistance.

Family Health Plus is a Medical Assistance Program for adults 19-64 with higher income and resource guidelines. With this program, clients receive coverage similar to employer-based health insurance through a managed care organization.

We also offer some more specialized programs; the Prenatal Care Assistance Program for pregnant women, the Family Planning Benefit Program for persons of childbearing age, various Medicare Savings Programs, the Medicaid Buy-In for Working Persons with Disabilities, COBRA Assistance, Chronic Care Medicaid for nursing home and long-term home health care, and various waived programs for persons with specific needs such as the Care at Home program for children, the TASA Program for pregnant and parenting teens, and the Traumatic Brain Injury Waivered program.

Depending on their level of eligibility, clients may receive assistance with doctor's visits, prescription medications, dental services, emergency medical services, in-patient hospital care, medical transportation, assistance paying for other health insurance programs, and many other services necessary to keep individuals and families healthy.

We interview applicants by appointment only. Applicants may represent themselves, or they may designate a representative to conduct the interview for them. We also receive applications from some hospitals, attorneys, and facilitated enrollers who are deputized to conduct the face-to-face interview.

Adult Services: This unit incorporates Adult Protective, Personal Care, Long Term Home Health Care, Family-Type Homes, Adult Foster Care and SSI services into one generic unit. A Central Intake System combining Ulster County Office for the Aging and Social Services facilitates better community access to all services for adults.

Child Protective Services: The CPS Unit is responsible for investigating reports of child abuse and/or maltreatment within 24 hours of receipt of a report to the State Central Registry. The toll free hotline number to the State Central Registry is 1-800-342-3720. When necessary, CPS seeks from the Family Court an Order of Protection, court-ordered services for the family, and/or authority to place a child in foster care. The Family Violence Investigative Unit investigates cases of domestic violence, physical abuse and sexual abuse reported to the State Central Registry. Teams of law enforcement officers and child protective caseworkers jointly respond and investigate these reports. The unit is under the joint supervision of a NYS Police Senior Investigator and a Child Protective Services supervisor. The CPS Preventive Unit provides services to families who have indicated SCR reports and are opened for on-going protective and preventive services.

Assessment/Intake Unit: This unit is responsible for the assessment of referrals for children's services that are made to the Department of Social Services but are not connected with the State Central Registry. Referrals come from a variety of sources including, but not limited to, schools, neighbors, agencies and self-referrals. Referrals are assessed in order to determine the need for mandated preventive services, community-based services or placement in foster care.

Preventive Services: This unit seeks to deliver an array of services to meet the multiplicity of problems that threaten the breakup of families and the placement of children in foster care. These services include casework counseling, parenting skills training, and referrals to community based programs and are available after assessment by the intake unit.

Foster Care: Foster Care services for children are defined as assessing the need for, arranging for and providing for placement and related services to children in an appropriate foster care setting. Children are placed by either the request of a parent or guardian or as a result of a judicial determination that the child's continuation in his own home would be contrary to the welfare of such child. Children are placed from birth up to age 18 and can remain in care up to age 21 if they entered prior to turning 18. The Foster Care Homefinding Unit is responsible for securing placements in foster homes for children who are in the custody of the department and recruiting and training new foster and adoptive parents.
